OUR VISION

Born out of our love for bourbon and fine wine, The Canton Club Vault is a place where members can gather for an exclusive and unique experience.

Step back in time to our prohibition styled "Speakeasy." Such illegal operations were prevalent in Canton's "Redlight District" during the early 1900's, where bootlegged alcohol was secretly sold to their habitu . The discreet, side-door entrance at The 19th Hole indoor golf venue, allows our membership to frequent as they please with privacy.

Enjoy craft cocktails or purchase and collect fine spirits by the bottle. Secure your libations in your very own safety deposit locker, located inside the vault. Easily access your private collection when you stop in for an important meeting, on your way home from work, or when having a night out on the town.

HISTORY

Since 1896, "Sicilian Black Hands" used the city of Canton as a midway point between Chicago and New York. Canton and the surrounding Stark County area became a hub for mafia operations. It earned a reputation for violent crime and was later given the nickname, "Little Chicago." Mafia influences held a strong presence in the area, through World War II.

Since 1907, the members-only "Canton Club" was revered as the premier member only lounge and dinner club in town. Known for having served some of the most notable and affluent individuals of that era, including Al Capone.

The Canton Club moved to the First National Bank building at Tuscarawas Street and Market Avenue in 1923. The original club was restricted to men only until 1983. After nearly 100 years of success, membership dwindled and it was forced to close its doors in 2000.

Today, we are pleased to bring the rich history of Downtown Canton back to life with the reopening of the Canton Club. The original Diebold vault sat empty in the basement of the building for many years. That same vault has since been carefully renovated and restored for the unique lounge space - The Canton Club Vault.
